A NOTE FROM THE PRODUCER:

This week marks the end of our thirty-fifth season, one which, in many ways, we feel has been superior to those of the past several years. This season saw Arlene Francis return to Ivoryton for the third time, and the fifth appearance of Tallulah Bankhead. In addition, we presented a new play, prior to Broadway, "The Wayward Stork" with Hal March and Marjorie Lord; as well as the premier Ivoryton appearances of Peggy Cass, Genevieve, Imogene Coca, and Walter Pidgeon. This closing week brings one of Broadway's most delightful recent musical hits, "Stop The World, I Want To Get Off!" starring Joel Grey and Lovelady Powell.

For all this we owe thanks to many people, notably to you, our patrons. We hope that you have enjoyed our thirty-fifth season as much as we have enjoyed bringing it to you. And we look forward to seeing all of our patrons back next year for another season of fine entertainment.

Milton Stiefel
